High School Winter Events 2012

Hey Teens! All high school freshman-senior students are invited to attend youth ministry events. We have Youth Masses, social events, retreats, community service events, and we meet in the Bell Tower TWICE A MONTH for activities, discussions, socializing & more (p.s. there's always great food & snacks!!) Check out an event & bring a friend!

Ski Trip to Sunburst in Wisconsin!

Meet at St. Mary Nativity at 7am, return at 10pm
$70 includes rentals, lesson, & transportation

Please bring extra money for lockers & food. You may also pack a lunch and water for the day. St. Paul's, St. Mary's and a few other youth groups will be joining us!

Space is limited on the bus, so please have money and forms in by January 11th or sooner!

On Friday, January 13th there will be a jr. high dance. Any high schoolers interested in helping with set up, concessions, and or clean-up will earn money towards YLC. Please let me know if you want to help by Jan 6th!

January 20th-24th is the March for Life trip. Please pray that the teens & adults going have a safe trip! We will be at a Mass for Life on that Sunday, please join us in praying that day for the protection of the unborn.

Sunday, January 29th: Help at Sunny Hill!

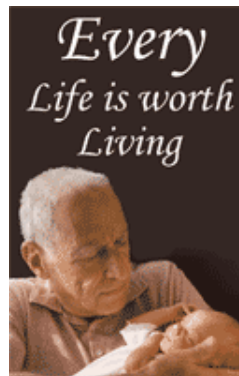

Meet at St. Ray's at 9am, return at 12:30pm. Attend a Polka Mass with the residents, and set up for their Polish lunch banquet. Permission slips due by Jan 26th.

Your presence can make a difference, and save a life!

Come to Planned Parenthood to silently demonstrate that you believe everyone should have a chance at life. We will stand in a parking lot across from Planned Parenthood, holding signs, praying the rosary, and passing out literature to those who want it.

Meet at St. Ray's at 8:30am, return at 11:30am. Permission slips are due 2/13.
